

UNITED STATES MINORITY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

SPECIAL REPORT

THE XX MINORITY REGIONAL PROCUREMENT CONFERENCE MIAMI 2017

On behalf of the U.S Minority Chamber of Commerce (MCC) board of directors, our appreciation to the attendees and our wonderful speakers, Ms. Miriam Singer, Chief Procurement Miami Dade County and Ms. Hue Reynolds, Executive Director Purchasing for State of Florida during the XX Bi-Annual Minority National Procurement Conferences Miami 2017 at the World Trade Center of the Minority Chamber of Commerce.

Our Speakers Ms. Singer and Ms. Reynolds made a presentation complex process simple and complex material easy to digest and remember for contracting challenge with both public organizations, benefiting not only the process and institutional operations in contracting with the Miami Dade County and the State of Florida, but also better management of procurement development for minority small businesses.

Mr. Hue Reynolds, Executive Director Procurement
State of Florida

Miriam Singer, Chief Procurement
Miami Dade County

Our speakers substantially benefitted from their vast experience and excellent presentations covering the entire Procurement Framework with Miami Dade County and the State of Florida, and much more information. We founded their capability to simplify complex topics making them easy to grasp using a perfect understanding on how to deal with both government, their presentation was admirable.

Ms. Miriam Singer

Our Mission: The XX Minority Regional Procurement is a conference fostering business partnerships between the States of Florida and Miami Dade County, and small minority, service-disabled veteran-owned, veteran-owned, HUBZone, and women-owned businesses. Now in its 20th editions, the Government Procurement Conference has become the premier event for minority small businesses throughout Miami

Participating firms enjoyed the benefit of marketing their products/services to procurement representatives and small business specialists from government agencies. The conference also included a raffle of a 365 Microsoft office and a dynamic exhibitor showcase.
