

UNITED STATES MINORITY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

PRESS RELEASE FOR IMMEDIATE DISTRIBUTION

THE U.S. MINORITY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE (USMCC) ANNOUNCES THE XXIII EDITION OF THE AMERICAS CEO'S SUMMIT 2021 SHINING A SPOTLIGHT ON TOMORROW'S NEW ECONOMY

- The exclusive conference provides US minority businesses with an overview on trade and an expansion on business opportunities in Latin America and the Caribbean as well as information how to navigate among 5 million minority U.S. companies.
- The XXIII Edition will provide forum & Gala Awards to celebratory receptions; Summit provides a multitude of networking opportunities in various formats to help you make connections and new international relations. .

San Juan, Puerto Rico. November 4, 2021. The United States Minority Chamber of Commerce (USMCC) announces its exclusive conference, “The Americas CEO’s Summit 2021” to be held on December 17-19, 2021 at the wonderful Marriott Condado Hotel in San Juan, Puerto Rico. The event is not open to the public.

Through various panel discussions and workshops the conference will develop a dialogue to further increase trade and investments between U.S. minority companies based in the United States and Puerto Rico with Latin America counterpart. The 2021 edition will be key for senior-level private sector representatives and foreign public officials from the Latin America & the Caribbean, and the United States. For more information you can visit: www.ceo-summit.com

“The overall purpose of the XXIII Edition of the CEO of the Americas Summit 2021, is to understand corporate scenario of a new economy and how to reinforce broad-based and effective cooperation, trade and investments in a “two-way street”; we will explore on how businesses from Latin America and the Caribbean can relocate into United States and Puerto Rico”, said Mr. Doug Mayorga, CEO of the USMCC, “We handpick our speaker lineup from the private and public sectors leadership in America, who are the leading subject-international matter experts in their fields. This edition is carefully curated to focus on hot-topic global trade issues, like export, imports, and the emerging technologies that will directly impact all participants”.

The goals of the XXIII Summit is:

1. To promote a dialogue between the U.S Minority business world and the Latin America & the Caribbean political scene based the COVID 19 cause and effect.
2. To enable U.S minority companies and Latin America & the Caribbean businesses to meet decision-makers face-to-face and to enhance the visibility of their business;
3. To improve participants' knowledge and understanding of Latin-American & the Caribbean affairs; and
4. To strengthen an environment of confidence amongst government and private business leaders, non-governmental organizations, and U.S Partners, in order to reinforce the United States and Latin America & the Caribbean economic model.

About USMCS: is an independent not for profit economic development organization that has been providing leadership from the minority businesses (Latino, African Americans, Women and Asian Americans) with headquarters in Washington DC, and operative centers in Los Angeles, Miami, New York, Puerto Rico, Mexico, Honduras, Costa Rica, Dominican Republic and Colombia. Since 2000 providing conferences, connections and facility businesses with Latin America and the Caribbean in the delivery of trade and investment trough public-private partnership.

The Chamber through the U.S. Entrepreneurship spirit in commerce is leading a global coalition in promote call centers for those American companies with interest to gain access in Puerto Rico, Colombia, Honduras, Ecuador, Dominican Republic and Mexico to expand business opportunities. The Chamber is the perfect partner, a one-stop platform for global companies aspiring to set up shop outside their home base. The Chamber's HUBs in the region will provide supply chain solutions by cutting through the complexities that businesses face during international expansion.

For more information: www.minoritychamber.net

For interview and RSVP:

Maria Loaisiga

director@minoritychamber.net

(786)406-2190

###

www.minoritychamber.net