

MR. MAX ALVAREZ

Elite Member since 2016

Hispanic-owned U.S. businesses now stand at 8.1 million—boasting a 60 percent growth rate. And with the growth of the Hispanic community, the number of Hispanic entrepreneurs is increasing as well—especially Hispanics who immigrate to the U.S, one of them: the e Founder and President of the Sunshine Gasoline Distributors, Mr. Maximo Alvarez.

The CEO of Sunshine Gasoline Distributors Incorporation was started in 1987 in South Florida. He came to the location named Miami at the age of 13 via Operation Pedro Pan.

Today, Mr. Alvarez created a fuel distributorship network representing BP, Chevron, CITGO, Shell, and Texaco brands. He is also a successful fuel distributorship. Later, he began buying convenience stores/gas stations in the South Miami area.

His company Sunshine has been buying land parcels in the Fort Lauderdale area with its profit. Today his network $80 Million, and considered by the United States Minority Chamber of Commerce in the rank of Hispanic leadership, #1.

Maximo is a very hardworking personality who has made his business successful based of results oriented productivity with well-honed expertise in gas-retailer , strategic inputs for organization's growth. His exceptional ability to build productive relations. He is a perfect role of inspiration for next generations of Hispanic entrepreneurs in the United States.

Alvarez was born in a location named Cuba. He was the son of a Spanish refugee from the Spanish Civil War. On August 24th, 2020, he spoke at the Republican National Convention