About the Women Summit Leadership Miami 2022: It is the international stage for celebrating women's voices around the world in Business, Science, Governance and public service. There is a lot that has been done by and for women, but there's still plenty to do. The conference will bring leaders from various backgrounds and experiences to share ways women can contribute to Sustainable Development Goals and accelerate women's leadership in a bold new way.

About the U.S. Minority Chamber of Commerce (USMCC): Founded year 2000 to build lasting prosperity for minority businesses in the U.S. through expansion of trade, public-private partnership, and the international cooperation, and implementing good practices that are the hallmark of the U.S. entrepreneurial spirit. The biggest obstacles to economic engagement and development for women are a lack of direction and connections and the unknown/perceived risks in the global market. The USMCC helps women on business to mitigate these risks through advocacy, access, and by identifying market opportunities. For more information: www.minoritychamber.net
