MIAMI, May 29, 2022 —The U.S. Minority Chamber launches its USA JOBS TEGUCIGALPA AND BOGOTA The exclusive event takes place at the most famous and classic Grand Hyatt Tegucigalpa Honduras. The highly-anticipated international USA JOBS features representation by U.S. Employers that provide continued international employment opportunities for Hondurans.

Through the initiative, the U.S. Minority Chamber of Commerce is advocating for—and rallying the business community to take advantage of more than 6,000 visas able for skill foreign talented people from Honduras that will help American Employers for in-demand jobs.

The Chamber is expanding its most impactful employer-led international workforce and launching new efforts to connect employers to undiscovered talent. The Chamber handles all details of international recruitment, interviews, selection and orientation from U.S. Employers, all attendees will be previously accepted to be admitted to the event that are a perfect fit for seasonal hotel, restaurant, theme park, hospital, transportation, warehousing, construction and security jobs. Our focus is limited to applicants that meet or exceed the English fluency, experience, skills, presentation and positive attitude standards that are required by the United States Minority Chamber of Commerce.

“Connecting Hondurans very talented people will be an extraordinary solution for U.S. employers; the pandemic was hugely disruptive to the labor market in the United States where the unemployment rate skyrocketed to 3.4% in March 2022, enormous ripple effect in our businesses communities and for the economy in general,” says U.S. MCC Founder & CEO Doug Mayorga.

“Without any doubt, the worker shortage is real—and it’s getting worse by the day. Minority businesses of every size, across every industry, in every state are reporting unprecedented challenges filling open jobs. The worker shortage is a national economic emergency, and it poses an imminent threat to our fragile recovery and America’s great resurgence”, says the president Mr. Mayorga.

About the U.S. Will Survive International Jobs Initiatives: Dedicated to facilitate Members, partners and clients participating to launch international employments for skilled workers, and multilingual people just entering the workforce in the United States as H2B Visa – including professionals. In addition, the initiative aims to expanding employer-led international workforce to help more businesses develop the talent they need. The Summit will start in Tegucigalpa , Honduras next June 10-11, 2022 and continue to Bogota next May July 2-3, 2022.

About U.S. Minority Chamber of Commerce: The mission of the Chamber is designed to help USMCC-member employers, partners, and clients to find international employees; and to help U.S. Employers to do all steps about employment-based nonimmigrant visas require employer sponsorship and other particularly details where the chamber can be involved.

The program of the Chamber will provide to the employer, on behalf of the prospective employee, files for a specific type of nonimmigrant visa with the U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS).

Out Background: The U.S.MCC has extensive experience since 2000 serving the recruiting process to U.S. Employers. Our short goal is to be accepted by the U.S. State Department-designated labor visa or sponsor agency. Actually, the Chamber has a database of more than 50,000 foreign job seekers through established own offices located in Colombia, Honduras and Mexico to offer our U.S. Employers -Members or Non-Members- a specialized solution to meeting the winter, spring and summer seasonal staffing requirement of their business through different labor visas.

Something to Know: In some circumstances, U.S. Department of Labor (DOL) approval is also required to demonstrate that the foreign national will not displace U.S. workers. Upon approval by the USCIS, the foreign national either is granted change of status if lawfully in the U.S. or may obtain the visa at a U.S. embassy. Also, we prepare background ck, traveling, hospitality, health test and other compliances available. For more information: www.minoritychamber.net
